SIR,

I have the honor to forward herewith copy of this office --- order No.R.Dis.124/26-27 dated 24th February 1927 which explains the circumstances in which the temple of Sri Kabbalamma in Ramanhally Taluk was taken under Government management and to request that --- formal approval of Government may kindly be obtained for taking over the management of this institution.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Muzrai Commissioner.

~~Please ask to why~~
1) It is more than three years since the M.C. approved the D.C's recommendation to take the inst^n under Govt management.
2) Govt. Sanction under 18 appears necessary. Hence (perhaps) the present reference from the M.C.

SIR,

Adverting to your letter No.931 Muz. 38-30-4 dated 30th October 1930 enquiring whether the Sidi or ornamental dress in the Jatra of Sri Kabbaladamma's temple at Kabbalu, Kankanhalli Taluk is hook-swinging by means of hooks piercing through the muscles of the back or any other similar practice involving cruelty, I have the honor to state that the ascertained that the practice in vogue is not of the kind referred to in the Law Secretary's letter and does not involve any cruelty but is performed by means of a cradle tied on to a long bamboo pole measuring about feet fixed on a perpendicular pole of about 10 feet high firmly fixed in the ground in which two or three votaries are seated and carried round once.

2. It is also reported that a fee of 4 annas per head of the votary is levied and that this form of fulfilling the vow is not attended with any form of cruelty.
